

Webinar: December 11

Nonprofits and the economy: Coping tools for turbulent times

How can your nonprofit weather the plunging economy? Join PJ for a webinar Dec. 11 featuring three national experts who will look at ways nonprofits can build their organizational capacity, approach givers and grantmakers, and strengthen their fundraising strategies.

Find out about:

- Minimizing financial risk and making contingency plans
- Donors' response to the downturn
- Building awareness and making your fundraising case

Don't miss PJ's special webinar on the economy, featuring Eileen Heisman, president and CEO, National Philanthropic Trust; Doug Bauer, senior vice president, Rockefeller Philanthropy Advisors; and Jennifer Pryce, director of advocacy, Nonprofit Finance Fund.

Eileen Heisman

Doug Bauer

Jennifer Pryce

WHERE: On your phone and at your computer

WHEN: Thursday, December 11

TIME: 1pm, Eastern time
10am, Pacific time
11am, Mountain time
Noon, Central time

Duration: 1 hour

COST: $20 PJ subscribers | $30 non PJ Subscribers
Includes toll-free access to the webinar, as well as a link to the recording. Subscribe to receive discount.

REGISTER ONLINE

Register 4 or more people from your organization and get one free registration! Contact Cathy Harms at 919.573.4646 for more details.

Who we are:

The Philanthropy Journal helps people understand, support and work in the nonprofit and philanthropic world, and helps them recognize and solve social problems. Through a daily website and weekly email bulletin we deliver nonprofit news, resources, announcements and job listings. Visit our website for more information at www.philanthropyjournal.org.

