This reference will assist you in making year-end contributions to your donor-advised fund. Following the guidelines below will help to ensure that National Philanthropic Trust (NPT) receives and processes your contributions by the applicable deadline for treatment as a 2021 gift. Most assets require the submission of a Contribution Agreement. You may complete this process online at nptgivingpoint.org.

| Stock Certificates | • Work with the issuer’s transfer agent to determine what documentation is required to transfer the certificates to National Philanthropic Trust. Obtain and fully complete all required forms, including medallion guarantee.
• Mail (i) physical certificate and (ii) all of the completed forms required by the transfer agent, including an irrevocable stock/bond power properly endorsed with medallion guarantee to National Philanthropic Trust. We recommend mailing each of (i) and (ii) under separate cover, and obtaining insurance on the package containing the physical certificates.
• Submit a Contribution Agreement to National Philanthropic Trust. | Initiate process As early as possible
Must be received (or postmarked, if shipping via USPS) by December 31 |

* To receive a 2021 credit for your charitable contributions, NPT must receive your contribution by the last business day of the year, December 31.

 For gifts of stock, bonds, ETFs or mutual funds, please note that the external custodian currently holding the assets may require that you submit a Letter of Instruction to initiate the transfer of the assets; if so, please present originals of the completed Letter of Instruction to the external custodian and not to NPT.

 Transferee must be listed as “National Philanthropic Trust.” Do not include the name of your donor-advised fund in the transferee name. Failure to provide all required forms, failure to complete the forms properly and/or sending the documentation to any recipient other than National Philanthropic Trust (including directly to the transfer agent or to your financial advisor) could delay the gift date.
